Programs in agriculture and natural resources, 4-H youth development, family and consumer sciences, and resource development.
University of Tennessee Institute of Agriculture, U.S. Department of Agriculture and county governments cooperating.
UT Extension provides equal opportunities in programs and employment.

As a general rule, conference assistants/teen leaders must be senior 4-H members. Conference assistants/teen leaders register free; however, either they or the region provides transportation. Conference assistants/teen leaders are 4-H members.

4-H members complete this form, which must be signed by the member and parent before submitting to the county Extension agent. The agent gives comments, signs the form and submits it to the regional office. Approval at home, county and regional levels is required before consideration by the state 4-H staff.
