

Citizenship

March 2017

For more information, contact:

James W. Swart, 4-H Youth Development

Jennifer Richards, 4-H Youth Development

Knowledge

Understand your strengths and weaknesses as an individual.

- Complete a self-study of your personal leading, speaking, and collaborating skills.

Develop an understanding of service inside and outside your community.

- Compare service efforts of national civic organizations.
- Define what it means to be a global citizen.
- List global service organizations and classify them based on what types of service they provide.
- List opportunities to provide service in your local community.

Skills

Demonstrate an understanding of civic engagement, volunteerism, and service learning.

- Define civic engagement and relate it to your project work.
- Compare and contrast volunteerism and civic engagement.
- List the steps of the service learning model.

Dispositions

Value your heritage and how it defines you as an individual.

- Find information about your ancestry and outline your family tree.
- Define genealogy.

Value the importance of being a citizen in your local community.

- List local, state, and federal elected officials for your community.
- Define community.
- List ways you can become involved in your community.

AG.TENNESSEE.EDU

Real. Life. Solutions.™