3-5 YEARS IN PROJECT

Performing Arts

REVISED January 2027

For more information, contact:
Lynne Middleton, Tennessee 4-H Youth Development
Wesley Brewer, UT Extension
Whitney Whittaker, UT Extension

Theatre

Performance

- Perform examples of soliloquies, asides, monologues, and dialogues from well-known performances
- Research necessary components of a live theatre performance including stage presence, actor positioning, and vocal skill
- Understand the actor-audience relationship in live theatre
- Categorize different skills needed in a live performance based on your level of confidence with that skill

Technical

- Research the necessary components of a proper set design, including lighting, set design, props, and costumes
- Demonstrate a basic understanding of the important technical parts of theatre by defining them to others
- Sketch a basic design of a stage layout for a particular play

Vocal Performance

- Demonstrate the ability to meet different pitches with your voice and match pitch with others
- Identify pieces of music you could perform as a solo, duo, as a part of a chorus, and a part of a choir
- Exhibit proper vocal technique when performing, focusing on proper breathing and vocal production
- Interpret the mood, tempo, dynamic, and tone color in a vocal performance
- Demonstrate an understanding of writing and reading music by using proper notation

Instrumental Performance

- Develop and demonstrate proper performance skills by using appropriate posture, breathing, embouchure, and technique
- Demonstrate musical expression by performing with appropriate phrasing, dynamics, tempo and style
- Evaluate and critique musical performances, including your own
- Perform effectively as an ensemble member by listening to others and contributing to the overall sound of a group performance
- Develop consistent practice habits in order to demonstrate a better understanding of your instrument and playing technique

Dance

- Compare and contrast types of dance based on their characteristics, types of movements, and required skill level
- Demonstrate basic and advanced dance moves for younger 4-H members
- Illustrate the moves of a basic dance step by step
- Practice new dances with which you are unfamiliar
- Write a description of a dance performance using proper vocabulary and accurate information

AG.TENNESSEE.EDU
Real. Life. Solutions.™

Programs in agriculture and natural resources, 4-H youth development, family and consumer sciences, and resource development. University of Tennessee Institute of Agriculture, U.S. Department of Agriculture and county governments cooperating. UT Extension provides equal opportunities in programs and employment.